Export Market Dairy Tariffs Guide 1 April, 2023

Export Market Dairy Tariffs Guide is published by Dairy Australia on behalf of the Australian dairy industry. It is aimed to assist Australian dairy exporters or those who are considering exporting Australian dairy products.

The concept of The Export Market Dairy Tariffs Guide is to bring together information relating to import tariffs and quotas related to dairy products.

This information is intended as a reference guide only and is not a definitive list of all markets and tariffs. Furthermore, Tariffs, quotas and safeguards change quite frequently, so exporters need to check with their local agents before making export commitments.

This document provides detailed market information on 27 key export markets (including the European Union and Gulf Cooperation Council) for the Australian dairy industry. Information for non-key export market might be available from Dairy Australia on request.

For matters relating to market access for dairy products or for markets not appearing in this guide please contact Karl Ellis karl.ellis@dairyaustralia.com.au or visit dairyaustralia.com.au.

Saudi Arabia Subsidies Information

In early 2017 the Saudi Arabia Government announced that it would terminate certain subsidies for some consumer products. As a result, customs duty rates on some agricultural imports, including dairy products, have increased from 5% to between 6% and 25% for some products.

The Saudi Government has not specified the exact effective date for the new customs duty rates but started applying the new rates since late 2016. Australian companies should check with their customers in Saudi Arabia to confirm the applied rate for any products destined for Saudi Arabia.
